Fifty years from now, Logan - the man who no longer calls himself Wolverine - will have endured many atrocities: The Marvel Universe's villains will have banded together and rid the world of its heroes. One of the best Wolverine stories ever done, Wolverine: Old Man Logan by writer Mark Millar and artist Steve McNiven shows an alternate dystopian future (Earth-807128) where the villains have taken over the world. It means all the heroes are dead and only Logan is left, with a seedy past that explains why he went into hiding. It's a powerful story that any fan of Old Man Logan should read not only because it is that good, but because it sets up the basis for the book you intend to read. Old Man Logan has finally entered the main Marvel Universe Earth 616 and he's a man on a mission. Collecting OLD MAN LOGAN issues #1-4 and WOLVERINE: OLD MAN LOGAN GIANT SIZED. Thanks to the Marvel event of SECRET WARS where God Emperor

God ruled a vast array of lands throughout the Marvel universe, one of which is based on WOLVERINE: OLD MAN LOGAN (taking place in the tie-in Wolverine: Old Man Logan Vol. 0: Warzones). In that story, Logan builds a small army to take on Doom and just when the army begins its attack, the SECRET WARS event ends resetting the Marvel Universe. In a surprise turn of events, Old Man Logan has survived and been transported into the new ALL-NEW, ALL-DIFFERENT Marvel Earth 616. Surprised of these revelations, Logan sees this as ample opportunity to fix his future. That means going after all the key people who will influence the downfall of the Marvel universe and killing them. But things in the present landscape are not what they appear to be and it might mean something different for Logan's future.
