The Quilter’s Son was the second series of Samantha’s that I read. I loved her series Jacob’s Daughter, so I knew I would also love this series. It’s well written, and I loved the characters and story line. A must-read!

Really liked this four book series. Liam, Lydia, Nathan & Maddie are all such likeable characters. A good clean series.

It was the type of Amish romance I read a lot and is a fairly predictable story line. I enjoyed it.

I enjoyed reading these books. I will see about reading some more books by this author. I recommend this set.

I was hesitant ordering this mesh bag over using "natural" cheesecloth but I LOVE it. I use it for making Almond milk. If you leave the seam outwards and have the seamless side inside then it is super easy to clean. The corners are even rounded so that nothing gets stuck in the corners. I set the bag inside a strainer sitting over a bowl and pour in my just blended nut milk. After most of it has drained through to the bowl I squeeze out the remaining milk. What is left is a wonderful Almond dry paste. I then bake that on low for an hour or two and have "almond crumbles" for pudding, oatmeal, topping other cereals or just a snack!
