Not All Roads Lead To Heaven: Sharing An Exclusive Jesus In An Inclusive World

Synopsis

Almost 60 percent of those in American evangelical churches believe that many religions can lead to eternal life. But if Jesus is to be trusted when he says that no one comes to the Father except through him, the church is failing in its mission. And it's not hard to guess why. An exclusive Jesus just isn't popular in our inclusive world. Dr. Robert Jeffress calls on Christians to recover the exclusive claims of the one they claim as Lord and Savior, not as a way to keep people out of heaven but as the only way to invite them in. He tackles questions like - Can people be saved who have never heard of Christ?- What about those who worship God by another name?- Do children automatically go to Heaven when they die? True compassion for non-Christians doesn't lie in letting them go their way while we go ours, but in sharing the only true way with them.

Once again, Dr. Robert Jeffress, proves why he is a world-class Bible teacher, author and leader. Not All Roads brings clarity and understanding to the questions so many people have about the pathway to heaven. In this book, Dr. Jeffress firmly establishes why faith in Jesus Christ is the only pathway to Heaven and the only way to receive eternal life. "Not all Roads" is a must-read for Christians ready to equip themselves with the weapons needed to fight the cancers of Spiritual Contamination and Pluralism that are overtaking our nation and our globe. "Not all Roads" would be an excellent resource for any Sunday School class or small group Bible Study.

What is Christianity's most offensive belief? Tough question, isn't it? Well, according to Dr. Robert Jeffress in his latest book Not All Roads Lead to Heaven, it is the Biblical teaching that faith in Jesus is the exclusive way to heaven. We have all heard the secular religious mantra that all faiths are equally valid and that all of us are basically good people. But what does the Bible really say? In this well written and accessible book Dr. Jeffress draws upon his extensive knowledge of the Scripture and his personal exploration of the subject to provide a compelling case for the exclusivity of the Christian faith. Undoubtedly this is a controversial subject and Dr. Jeffress pulls no punches but his straight forward approach to the subject is tempered with a genuine love for those who have not taken that "leap of faith" as he describes it. A few chapters which really spoke to me were those addressing the questions or in some cases the accusations we are often challenged with when sharing our faith: 1. Christianity's Most Offensive Belief 5. The Intolerant Christ 7. What about Those Who Have Never Heard? 8. What about Those Who Could Never Believe in Christ? Dr. Jeffress addresses these questions and several more with sound and simple Biblical arguments. After reading this book I know I am better equipped to fulfill the Biblical mandate to give a reasonable answer to some of the most difficult and important questions of our Christian faith. But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts: and be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you with meekness and fear: - 1 Peter 3:15

I liked it from beginning to end. Very well written. Dr. Jeffress answers several difficult Biblical questions that non-believers invariably ask. He states that Christianity is an exclusive religion in which Christians must personally trust in Jesus Christ as their personal Savior in order to be in a right relationship with God. Christianity does not claim that all religions are equal. There is one way to heaven, not many ways, and that is Jesus Christ and Him crucified. Dr. Jeffress is tops in my book. If I lived in Dallas, I'd be a member of his church.

Jesus the Son of God talked about two ways, one wide and one narrow. Two gates, two destinations. Unfortunately both ways say "This Is The Way To Heaven" but only one is right and the other dead wrong. The broad way is the way of "Human Achievement", this is the way of works, by what we must "do" to earn eternal life. Dr. Robert Jeffress talks about this popular wide road and and he talks about the unpopular narrow way that has a narrow gate that leads to life and it is entered only by "Divine Accomplishment", what Christ has "done". A very cogent book on the subject of "Sharing an Exclusive Jesus in an Inclusive World".

A war is being waged against an exclusive Christ and an exclusive salvation by pluralism and inclusivism. In NOT ALL ROADS LEAD TO HEAVEN, Dr. Robert Jeffress tackles a most critical question - is Jesus Christ the only Savior? Those of us who hold to an exclusive view are considered intolerant, hateful and unloving. As I read this book, I am constantly pointed back to the only Son of God, Jesus Christ, as the solitary way to heaven with hope and love found in the entirety of God's Word - the Bible. Dr. Jeffress deals with the "œnitty gritty" issues of believing an exclusive gospel with uncompromising truth and unwavering confidence in the most historic precept of Christianity, while wrapped in compassionate responses. I recommend every believer read this book to gain sure footing in this most critical battle. I am better prepared and believe you will be too. "œEnter by the narrow gate; for the gate is wide, and the way is broad that leads to destruction, and many are those who enter by it. For the gate is small, and the way is narrow that leads to life, and few are those who find it." • Matthew 7:13-14

For those either confused or undecided about the exclusivity of Jesus Christ as the only way to Heaven, Dr. Robert Jeffress writes with compassion as he simply and methodically explains what God has told us about the ONLY road that leads to eternity with Him. This topic of exclusivity can evoke a powder keg of emotion when discussed between believers and non-believers with typically someone saying either "then I don't want to believe in your God because that is not a God of love!" or "I'll just wait and as I get closer to the end of my life, THEN I'll choose that road". Please heed these words written boldly and poignantly by Dr. Jeffress and consider this: what if, at the end of your life, there is no time left to choose the right path? You missed the ONLY turn-off; all you have is in ruins with no insurance policy and the insurance adjuster states, "well, you were given the opportunity to make the right choice, however there is no turning back now." Christ is the only way, truth and life. Choose the right path now.
