Customer Reviews

Mary Burnette was governess for six years and now the mistress feels she is no longer needed in that job so she has her doing the work of a maid or wherever else she sees fit. She decides to find something else to do but she reads an ad for a widower with two daughters who wants a wife. Mary answers the ad and after a few letters she is on her way Wyoming. She is not ready for what she finds when she meets Obadiah Cavell. He is much older than she expects and so are his daughters. This story has some twist and turns in it and you will enjoy the plot this couple go through.

Mary makes the trip out west, but will she be accepted as a bride and mother to two daughters who do not want her? Also, in the mix is a cowboy who works on the ranch and is paying too much attention to her.
