Customer Reviews

I really enjoyed reading this book. It brought to mind that in any relationship the truth between husband and wife must be a priority for a marriage to work and sustain over the years.

This was such a fun story to read. The author brings you right into the story the ups and downs of the main formal character makes you want to read more of her continuing journey. Emily Woods is starting a new series and this a great start. As always this book is well written with interesting characters. I am looking forward to the rest of the books.

I loved this book and would recommend everything by this author. Well-written with hood character development.
